

Road Map to Trailhead
Three Forks Trail
 Umatilla National Forest - Pomeroy District

In the town of Troy, OR, turn north onto signed Bartlett Road. Drive 5.6 miles, switchbacking up out of the river canyon, then driving northwest up along Bear Creek, to a prominent road junction. Branch left here (west) onto signed Reynolds Lane and follow it west for about 0.8 miles, then north for about a mile, then east for another mile and finally north again for about 0.6 miles to Kessler Mill Road on the left. This intersection is just past old homestead house on the left.

Drive west on Kessler Mill Road for 3.1 miles to a cattle guard at the Forest boundary, where it becomes Forest Road 4039. Drive 0.4 miles on Road 4039 to Road 246 on the left, just past the Three Forks Picnic Area and vault toilet on the right.

The trailhead is 0.2 miles down Road 246, about 50 yards before the parking area at road's end. The entire route from Troy is driveable by any passenger car, in nearly any weather. A Northwest Forest Pass is required at the trailhead.
