

Road Map to Trailhead
Dry Island Hike
 WA Dept. of Fish & Wildlife

From the north on State Hwy 26, 1.5 miles east of Royal City and 6.3 miles west of Hwy 262, turn south on Road E SW (aka Red Rock Coulee Road). Drive south for 3.7 miles to a "T". Bear right (west) on Lower Crab Creek Rd and go 6.9 miles, past the end of the pavement, to a large, salt flat parking area on the left (south).

From the west on State Hwy 243, turn east onto the Beverly/ Crab Creek Road, just south of a huge railroad trestle bridge. Drive 9.2 miles east, past the Beverly Dunes ORV Area, to a large, salt flat parking area on the right (south) side of the road.

From the parking area, cross the road and start the hike north on a jeep track, heading toward the railroad trestles at Crab Creek.
 A WA State Discover Pass is required at this trailhead.
